

ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Saturday 18th June 1910

AGED INHABITANT'S DEATH – The death occurred on Thursday of last week of one of the oldest ladies in Ryde, Mrs Maria SIBLEY, who lived at South Street in a house she has inhabited for the greater part of her life. She had attained the great age of 91 years. She lived in the reigns of five Kings of Great Britain and one Queen. Despite her great age the old lady's faculties were singularly keen.

Researched by
Ann Barrett