HAMPSHIRE ADVERTISER Saturday 9th September 1848

ROBBERY.---On the night of Saturday last, the house of Richard WALFORD, esq., Barfield, Ryde, was broken into, but the thief being disturbed by a maid-servant, he decamped, taking only a cloak and some other garment, he left behind him a carpenter's tool, by which he effected his entrance. Suspicion shortly fell on a young man named WATSON, a carpenter, who was apprehended by the police, and was heard before a bench of magistrates on Thursday. The case was remanded for a few days.

HAMPSHIRE ADVERTISER Saturday 7th October 1848

Death Notice:
On the 2nd instant, at Barfield, Ryde, Richard WALFORD, esq. aged 71.

NB: We note the discrepancy of the spelling of the Groom's surname on the marriage licence
