

ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Saturday 5th March 1921

THE SANDPIT FATALITY. - Mrs. PARSONS, widow of the late George PARSONS, of Haylands, who was represented by Mr R.L.K. FLUX appeared before the judge at Ryde County Court on Wednesday, with regard to the compensation award for herself and dependents, the husband having been killed at a sandpit in St. John's last summer. She said she was able to do a little work and had three sons and a grandchild dependent. His Honour directed she should receive £25 for funeral expenses, etc., and £5 a month, the balance of £150 to be invested in Five Per Cent. War Stock.

Researched & typed by
Ann Barrett
Margaret Truckel