

ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Saturday 8th August 1874

Our obituary of to-day records the death of Mrs. Mary BOND, wife of Mr. N. G. BOND, yacht agent, which took place on the 4th inst., after a long and painful illness. For many years the deceased filled the occupation of lodginghouse-keeper in this town, and to show the high esteem in which she was held, we have only to point to the fact that she was visited by the same families for a number of years. Mrs. BOND had attained her 48th year, and has gone down to the grave beloved and lamented by a large circle of friends.
