

ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Saturday 18th September 1920

SUDDEN DEATH. – The death occurred suddenly in the early part of the week of Mr BROWNING, at his residence in Hill Street. The deceased was a naval veteran who had seen much service in his earlier life, and was well known through working on yachts, and he also was at one time a licensed holder in Player Street. The funeral took place on Friday amid every sign of respect.

Researched & typed by
Ann Barrett
Margaret Truckel