

ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Saturday 28th September 1878

DEATH OF AN OLD INHABITANT.- We have to record the death of Mr. Richard JAMES, and old and formerly well-known inhabitant of Ryde, which took place on Monday night. For a great number of years he carried on the business of a dealer in china, &c., in Union-street, but retired some years ago. He had attained a good age, being upwards of 80 years.
