

ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Saturday 23rd February 1907

SUDDEN DEATH. - On returning home to dinner at one o'clock on Thursday afternoon, Mr. Henry ORCHARD, living at Rodney Cottage, West Street, discovered his wife, Mary Anne ORCHARD, aged 52, lying in a bent-up position against the wall of the larder. He at once moved her in the kitchen and sent for Dr. MACKENZIE who lives near. On his arrival the doctor found life extinct. The facts have been reported to the Coroner and an inquest will in all likelihood result.

Researched & typed by
Ann Barrett
Margaret Truckel